

6516209774.txt

The proposed rule to restrict sat radio from carrying local information is anti-competitive and does not serve the public interest. It should not be approved. Let the marketplace determine the best provider of information.